

Faculty

Andrew & Giselle Alderson, have been CCL teachers since 2000 and are the parents of five children. Andrew, a retired Lieutenant Colonel and Command Pilot from the U.S. Air Force, became the Executive Director of CCL in September 2003.

Richard & Vicki Braun have been CCL teachers since 1979. Richard is the National Field Director for CCL, and the Director of International Development. Vicki has an M.S. in microbiology and taught both medical and nursing students before becoming a full-time mother. She currently works for CCL as a Project Manager.

Jack Burnham, M.D., graduated from Ohio State University School of Medicine in 1984. After his family practice residency at Aultman Hospital in Canton, OH, he entered practice in Dover, OH. His practice also includes low-risk obstetrics. He and his wife, Judy, have seven children.

Paul Busam, M.D., is an emeritus member of the Board of Directors of CCL. He is retired from the full-time practice of family medicine.

Fr. Matthew Habiger, OSB was ordained in 1968 and has held the positions of Associate Pastor, Newman Chaplain and Professor of Moral Theology. He also worked within the pro-life movement through Human Life International. He currently travels throughout the country promoting the Theology of the Body, and giving parish missions based on the Catechism or NFP.

Fr. Randall Moreau is pastor of Our Lady, Queen of All Saints Church in Ville Platte, LA. He was first introduced to NFP as a seminarian and now preaches about the Church's teachings on birth control from the pulpit and requires an NFP course for marriage preparation.

Joe & Renee Oka have been married since 1988 and CCL teachers since 1996. Joe is a pilot for United Airlines while Renee is a homeschooling and full-time mother of five.

Silvia Schmidt has a bachelor's degree in accounting. Currently she is a Project Manager for CCL and helps with the growing demand for NFP services in Spanish. She has been teaching NFP in Spanish since 2001.
